No. 23

(Senate Joint Resolution 66)

A Senate Joint Resolution concerning

Eagleton Institute of Politics - Project PRESS

FOR the purpose of urging the Legislative Policy Committee to seek Maryland participation in Project PRESS (Program Review in Education and Social Services) being conducted by the Eagleton Institute of Politics.

The General Assembly hereby recognizes the existence and stature of the Eagleton Institute of Politics located at Rutgers University in New Brunswick, New Jersey. The Eagleton Institute, over the past ten years, has furnished highly valuable technical and supportive services to 30 state legislatures in the areas of contractual studies, foundation-funded projects, consultation services, training conferences, and academic studies supported by grants from the Ford Foundation, Carnegie Corporation, National Science Foundation, and the United States Civil Service Commission. The Eagleton Institute is presently engaged in a project known as PRESS (Program Review in Education and Social Services), in which the Institute is selecting target educational or social services programs of the states for comprehensive evaluation as to their effectiveness; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the Legislative Policy Committee is urged to request the Eagleton Institute of Politics to include the State of Maryland in its PRESS project and select as a target program for review and analysis one of the following Maryland programs or agencies:

- (1) Multi-jurisdictional planning agencies;
- (2) Vocational rehabilitation programs under
