

EXECUTIVE ORDERS

- (1) One shall be from the State Department of Education;
 - (2) One shall be from the State Department of Human Resources;
 - (3) One shall be from the State Employment Security Administration;
 - (4) One shall be from each of the prime sponsor jurisdictions in the State, recommended by the highest elected official in the jurisdiction or by the person officially designated to act in that capacity for the governmental units within the prime sponsor jurisdiction.
 - (5) The remaining members shall be selected from labor, business, and community groups and from other State agencies.
- (d) The Council shall:
- (1) advise the Governor, the CETA prime sponsors, and the public on statewide manpower policy,
 - (2) review state agency and prime sponsor plans concerning manpower in order to recommend more effective coordination of efforts,
 - (3) monitor state agency and CETA prime sponsor programs and services,
 - (4) make an annual manpower report to the Governor, and
 - (5) otherwise perform the functions and duties prescribed for it in CETA and any regulations issued thereunder.

3. Manpower Planning Council.