

3. Coordination

The State Health Planning and Development Agency and the State Health Coordinating Council shall coordinate their activities in accordance with Public Law 93-641 and in a manner to maximize the efficiency of the program.

4. Appeals from decisions of Health Planning and Development Agency

In accordance with the requirement of Article 41, Section 206A(c) of the Annotated Code of Maryland, a person aggrieved by a final action or determination of the State Health Planning and Development Agency may appeal to the Board of Review of the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene with respect to any matter over which the Board of Review has jurisdiction. If aggrieved by the final decision of that Board, he may seek judicial review under the State Administrative Procedure Act (Article 41, Sections 244-256, Annotated Code of Maryland).

EXECUTIVE ORDER OF SEPTEMBER 7, 1976

YOUTH ADVISORY COUNCIL

WHEREAS, Events in recent years have repeatedly demonstrated that the youth of the State of Maryland are interested in and highly capable of participating in the affairs of government; and

WHEREAS, The State Government presently operates a substantial number of programs and services that directly affect the lives of young people throughout the State; and

WHEREAS, In 1971, I created a Youth Advisory Council as a mechanism through which the concerns of the youth of Maryland may be channeled to those in positions of authority within the apparatus of State Government; and

WHEREAS, The Council has functioned well in its five years of existence and should be constituted as a permanent unit of State Government;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARVIN MANDEL, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF MARYLAND, BY VIRTUE OF THE AUTHORITY VESTED IN ME
