

WHEREAS, I, Marvin Mandel, Governor of Maryland, having been advised and informed that heavy rainfalls occurring on October 8 and 9, 1976, resulted in severe flood damage in the State of Maryland; and

WHEREAS, Acting on this knowledge, I declared on October 12, 1976, that a State of Emergency existed in Frederick County; and

WHEREAS, Said Emergency has been dealt with to the extent that emergency conditions no longer exist;

NOW, THEREFORE, Pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the State of Maryland, including Article 16A of the Annotated Code of Maryland, and the Maryland Disaster Assistance Plan adopted by Executive Order of September 26, 1975, I MARVIN MANDEL, GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND, HEREBY PROCLAIM THAT THE STATE OF EMERGENCY IN FREDERICK COUNTY IS TERMINATED.

PROCLAMATION OF NOVEMBER 23, 1976

CORRECTIONAL CAMP CENTER - JESSUP

WHEREAS, The State is facing a critical problem of overcrowding in its correctional system; and

WHEREAS, The shortage of necessary facilities is most severe with respect to medium security inmates; and

WHEREAS, In order to help alleviate this situation, it is desirable that the current Correctional Camp Center operated by the Division of Correction at Jessup, which now houses minimum security inmates, be converted and made more secure to permit its designation as a medium security facility; and

WHEREAS, Upon completion of this conversion, other facilities now under construction will be available to house the minimum security inmates presently housed at the Camp Center or who would otherwise be assigned there in the future; and

WHEREAS, The conversion of the Camp Center involves the installation of grill work, towers, fencing, and other security equipment, facilities, and devices, and is estimated to cost approximately $2,000,000; and

WHEREAS, Because of the critical need to complete this conversion as soon as possible, an application for funding the Federal Economic Development
