

$25,000?

(4) To what extent is the source of funds to be considered? If funds for the project are provided by the federal government, must the contract undergo the Board review process? Suppose the State grants State money to a political subdivisions that plans to use over $25,000 of the money for architectural or engineering services: must the contract undergo Board review?

SECTION 4. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Sections 231B and 231C(f) of Article 41 - Governor-Executive and Administrative Departments, of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1971 Replacement Volume and 1976 Supplement), be and they are hereby repealed and reenacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

Article 41 - Governor-Executive and Administrative Departments

231B.

The following functions, boards, commissions, bureaus, offices and agencies shall be included within the Department of General Services: the duties and functions previously performed and exercised by the Department of Public Improvements; the Board of Architectural Review; the office of the Superintendent of Annapolis Public Buildings and Grounds; the office of the Superintendent of Baltimore Public Buildings and Grounds; THE GENERAL PROFESSIONAL SERVICES SELECTION BOARD; the Hall of Records Commission; the War Memorial Commission; the Washington Cemetery board of trustees; the commission on Artistic Property; the Purchasing Bureau, and such other functions, agencies, commissions, boards, committees, councils or units of government as may hereafter pursuant to law be declared to be part of the Department of General Services. The Department of General Services shall not have a board of review, and §3C of this article shall be inapplicable to the Department of General Services.

231C.

(f) (1) The Secretary of General Services may in his discretion exercise or perform any power, duty, responsibility or function which any of the divisions, boards, commissions, offices or other agencies within the jurisdiction of the Department of General Services are authorized to exercise or perform.

(2) THIS SUBSECTION DOES NOT APPLY TO THE POWERS, DUTIES, OR FUNCTIONS THAT DO NOT REQUIRE BY LAW THE APPROVAL OR ACTION OF THE SECRETARY OF GENERAL SERVICES AND ARE VESTED BY LAW IN THE GENERAL PROFESSIONAL SERVICES SELECTION BOARD.
