

§1-171.

The term "fixed termini" is defined in §11-122 of this subtitle.

It is important to note that the definitions of "fixed termini" and "regular schedule" presently are incorporated by reference in §32(a-1) of Article 78 of the Code, the Public Service Commission Law, and that the terms are used - although presently not expressly defined - in §2(w) of that Article, which defines "taxicab". See, also, Art. 56, §§ 151B and 184, and Art. 81, §§ 326(g-2) and 425, of the Code.

In present Art. 66 1/2, the terms appeared in but one section: present §3-811 contains the phrase "regularly fixed {sic} schedule, and between fixed termini" (see §13-931 of this article).

However, in a few instances, present Art. 66 1/2 does use similar phraseology that, by substitution of the defined terms, have been conformed. Thus, in §11-165 of this subtitle, which defines "taxicab", the phrase "operated on regular schedules and between fixed termini" is substituted for "operated ... on fixed routes and schedules"; (see revisor's note to that section); in §13-810(a)(14) of this article, as added recently by Ch. 896, Acts of 1976, the phrase is substituted for "in regular routes between fixed points" (see, also, Art. 56, §§ 151B and 184, and Art. 81, §§ 326(g-2) and 425, of the Code); and, in §13-913 of this article, the same phrase is substituted for the present reference to "fixed schedules". The changes are made for clarity and consistency and appear to be within the intent of the source law.
