

phrase "if the license is issued for a 4-year term" is new language derived without substantive change from Art. 66 1/2, §6-115 (b) (4). See §16-115 of this subtitle.

In subsection (d) (1) of this section, the term "usual signature"—which appears in the Uniform Vehicle Code counterpart to this section—is substituted for the somewhat less clear "proper handwriting".

Subsection (d) (2) of this section is new language added for clarity. As to restricted licenses, see §16-113 of this subtitle.

The second clause of present §6-111(b), which relates to records of applications to be kept, is deleted as unnecessary in light of §16-117 of this subtitle. As to public inspection of records, see §12-111 of this article.

The only other changes are in style.
