New Article 49D - Office For Children and Youth
Annotated Code of Maryland
(1972 Replacement Volume and 1977 Supplement)

Preamble

Since the basic purpose of the Office for Children and Youth is to examine programs and services and plans for children and youth, the accomplishment of ~~this purpose these purposes~~ precludes operation of ~~any~~ programs and services. Rather, it is to assist operating agencies, local governments and organizations in carrying out their functions efficiently, economically and effectively; and to assist families and the general public in knowing and obtaining information about programs and services and plans for children and youth; now, therefore,
