

accordance with § 3 of this article, or

(b) Who elected under subsection (2) of said § 3 not to become a member of said system, or

(c) Who has withdrawn from membership in said system, or

(d) Who has retired or been retired in accordance with the provisions of § 11 of this article and has withdrawn from membership in said system, shall be entitled to credit for all prior service rendered not only to said Commission but also to the Claiborne-Annapolis Ferry Company, and/or its predecessor, Claiborne-Annapolis Ferry, Inc.

Any such person who elected not to become a member under subsection (2) of § 3 or who withdrew from membership in said system may apply for and be admitted to membership but shall not be entitled to receive the prior service credit provided for in this § 7 unless he becomes a member of said system within sixty days from June 1, 1943.]

[ 10.

In determining the benefits under the Employees' Retirement System of the State of Maryland to which the employees of Morgan College may be entitled, full credit shall be allowed for the time such employees were employed by Morgan College prior to its acquisition by the State and such employees shall be entitled to retirement on the same terms and conditions as if they had been employed by an agency or department of the State during the whole time of their employment by the said College. Provided, however, that no employee of said College who is not now a member of the Employees' Retirement System and who fails to make his application for membership before December 1st, 1943, shall receive credit for such prior service, and provided further, that any present employee of said College not now a member of the Employees' Retirement System shall, upon becoming a member, pay into the said retirement system an amount equal to the total contributions which he would have made had he become a member of the said retirement system on October 1st, 1942.]

(a) Membership in the retirement system is subject to the provisions of this section for the several classes of assessors, including supervisors and assistants, for whom the State pays a portion of annual salary under the provisions of the subtitle "State Department of Assessments and Taxation" in Article 81 of this Code. Where there is any inconsistency between the two, this section prevails over the remainder of this article.

(b) In computing the employer's contribution required under this article, both for the retirement system and for
