

express powers contained and enumerated in Article 25A of the Annotated Code are intended and shall be deemed to incorporate and include the power and authority contained in this section; provided, however, that members of the Board of Education of Baltimore County who do not comply with the provisions of the financial disclosure requirements enacted by the Baltimore County Council shall be subject to removal in accordance with [Article 77, § 35] §3-108 OF THE EDUCATION ARTICLE.

Article 41 - Governor-Executive and Administrative Departments

70B.

(c) There is hereby established in the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services of the State of Maryland, a Correctional Training Commission whose membership shall consist of the following 13 persons:

(1) The deputy secretary for correctional services; the Director of the Division of Parole and Probation; the Commissioner of Correction; the president of the Maryland Community Correctional Administrators Association; the president of the Maryland Sheriffs Association; the president of the Maryland Probation, Parole and Correction Association; a representative of the Federal Bureau of Prisons to be designated by its director; the warden of the Baltimore City jail; the Attorney General of the State; the president of one university or college within the State which has a correctional education curriculum, to be appointed by the [Maryland Council on] STATE BOARD FOR Higher Education, and three correctional, parole or probation officers or officials of the State to be appointed by the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services, with the approval of the Governor, to represent different geographic areas of the State, the appointments to be made to three-year terms provided that, for the initial term, one official shall be appointed for a term of one year, one for a term of two years, and one for a term of three years.

214.

(b) There shall be an assistant secretary of personnel for retirement systems, who shall have such administrative functions and duties in connection with the operation of the retirement systems as may be delegated to him by the Secretary. The assistant secretary of personnel for retirement systems shall be appointed by the Secretary with the advice and consent of all three boards of trustees of the retirement systems. The assistant secretary of personnel for retirement systems shall serve at the pleasure of the Secretary and must be removed by the Secretary when the Secretary is so requested by all three boards of trustees of the retirement systems. The person who is the director of the retirement systems as of May 31, 1970, shall become the assistant secretary of personnel for retirement systems. The Secretary of Personnel shall also have such