

(e) Upon the death of any such member in service and provided that no benefit is payable under the provisions of this subsection, his accumulated contributions and any additional amounts he may have contributed under the provisions of subsection (13) (c) shall be paid to such person as the member shall have nominated, otherwise to his estate.

(f) Upon the termination of a member's service in the General Assembly, except by death or retirement and provided no benefit is payable under the provisions of this subsection, the amount of his accumulated contributions shall be returned to him upon his application.

(g) The State shall make annual contributions in accordance with the applicable provisions of § 14 of this article, which together with the contributions required of members covered by subsection (13) shall be sufficient to fund the benefits payable under the terms of said subsection on a sound actuarial basis.

[(19)] (20) (A) Any correctional officer serving in any of the first six job classifications who has completed 20 years of creditable service and who has served as a correctional officer in one of these classifications for five or more years immediately preceding retirement may retire and receive a retirement allowance equal to 1/55 of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of service. Retirement for a correctional officer in these classifications is mandatory when he attains the age of 60 years; however, year-to-year extensions may be permitted beyond age 60 with the approval of the Commissioner of Correction for correctional officers of the Division of Correction and the Director of Patuxent Institution for correctional officers of that Institution.

(B) The benefits for ordinary disability for any correctional officer in these classifications, who has served as a correctional officer in one of these classifications for five years immediately preceding retirement, shall be computed in the manner described in the subsection. The benefit for accidental disability shall be computed as provided by [§ 11 (7) of this article] SUBSECTION (7) OF THIS SECTION. In cases of vested retirement allowance as provided under [§ 11 (15)] SUBSECTION (16) OF THIS SECTION, the benefits payable to any correctional officer in these classifications who has served as a correctional officer in one of these classifications, for five or more years immediately preceding retirement, shall commence upon attainment of age 55 years.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Section(s) 11(3) (c), (d), and (e) (1), (2), (3), (5), and (6), (11) (b), and (17) of Article 73B - Pensions, of the Annotated Code of Maryland be repealed.
