

shall determine the amount due for the service based on the contributions, with interest. The term "taxable compensation" as used in this subsection, shall mean salary paid to the employee as specified in § 23 (a) of Article 88B during those years he was a member of the Maryland State Police and may not be construed to mean moneys received through subsistence allowances of any type.

[(17)] (16) A member may receive in the year in which he retires credit towards eligibility for benefits provided under § 11 of this article for federal or out-of-state municipal service up to a maximum of ten years if the member files claim for it with the board of trustees and pays into the retirement system an amount equal to the reserves required to fund the additional allowance for those years of federal, out-of-state municipal service, or a combination of both, as he may claim. The member may pay for the reserves on an installment basis by contributing not less than 5 percent a year. The appropriate final adjustments shall be made in the year in which the member retires.

(8) Once each year during the first five years following the retirement of a member on a disability retirement allowance, and once in every three-year period thereafter, the board of trustees may, and upon his application shall, require any disability beneficiary who has not yet attained the age of 60 to undergo a medical examination, such examination to be made at the place of residence of such beneficiary or other place mutually agreed upon, by a physician or physicians designated by the board of trustees. Should any disability beneficiary who has not yet attained the age of 60 refuse to submit to such medical examination, his allowance may be discontinued until his withdrawal of such refusal, and should his refusal continue for one year, all his rights in and to his pension may be revoked by the board of trustees:

(b) Should a disability beneficiary under the age of 60 be restored to active service and should his annual compensation then or at any time prior to the age of 60 be equal to or greater than his average final compensation at retirement, his allowance shall cease, he shall again become a member of the retirement system, and he shall contribute thereafter at the same rate he paid prior to disability. Anything in this article to the contrary notwithstanding, [any] prior service [certificate on the basis of which his service was computed at the time of his retirement] CREDIT shall be restored to full force and effect, and in addition, upon his subsequent retirement he shall be credited with all the service as a member creditable to him at the time of retirement; but should he be restored to membership after the attainment of age 50, his pension upon subsequent retirement shall not exceed the pension which he was receiving immediately prior to his last restoration to membership and the pension that may have
