

Article 27 - Crimes and Punishments
Section 466
Annotated Code of Maryland
(1976 Replacement Volume and 1977 Supplement)

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That section(s) of the Annotated Code of Maryland be repealed, amended, or enacted to read as follows:

Article 27 - Crimes and Punishments

466.

Every person who shall be convicted of the crime of receiving any stolen money, goods, or chattels, to the value of one hundred dollars or upwards, knowing the same to be stolen, or of the crime of receiving any bond, bill obligatory, bill of exchange, promissory note for the payment of money, bank note, paper bill of credit or certificate granted by or under the authority of this State, or the United States, or any of them, to the value of one hundred dollars or upwards, knowing the same to be stolen, shall restore such money, goods, or chattels or thing taken and received to the owner thereof, or make restitution to the value of the whole or such part thereof as shall not be restored, and is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction is subject to imprisonment for not more than ten years OR FINED NOT MORE THAN $1,000 OR BOTH. And such receiver may be prosecuted and punished, although the principal offender or offenders shall not have been convicted, and although such receiver shall have received such money, goods or chattels or things from a person other than the person by whom such money, goods or chattels or things shall have been stolen.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1978.

Approved May 16, 1978.
