3-828.

(c) The court, on its own motion or on petition, and for good cause shown, may order the court records of a child sealed, and, upon petition or on its own motion, shall order them sealed after the child has reached 21 years of age. [After a child has reached 21 years of age, the court may, upon petition or on its own motion, expunge records of the child in a case in which an adjudication of the child as delinquent, in need of supervision or in need of assistance has not been made.] If sealed, the court records of a child may not be opened, for any purpose, except by order of the court upon good cause shown.

(c) A judgment of restitution against a parent may not be entered unless the parent has been afforded a reasonable opportunity to be heard and to present appropriate evidence in his behalf. A hearing under this section may be held as part of [a] AN ADJUDICATORY OR disposition hearing for the child.

(e) The court may order the child who, wilfully or maliciously, steals, damages, or destroys the property of another or inflicts personal injury on another to make the restitution expenses himself if that is feasible considering the age and circumstances of the child; and if this is ordered, the liability of the child precedes the liability of the parent. The court may, in the alternative, enter a judgment [or] OF restitution against the child.

(a) Except as provided in § 4-302 AND § 3-804, the District Court has exclusive original jurisdiction in a criminal case in which a person at least 16 years old or a corporation is charged with violation of the vehicle laws, or the State Boat Act, or rules and regulations adopted pursuant to it.

Article 52A - Juvenile Services

12.

(c) The Maryland Children's Center, subject to the rules and regulations adopted and promulgated by the [State Department of] Juvenile Services ADMINISTRATION, shall accept custody of children from the juvenile courts for the purpose of providing diagnostic evaluation. [The] ANY evaluation is to be performed within [thirty] 30 days and the child is to be returned to the court with the evaluation record and appropriate treatment recommendations. The juvenile courts, [and/]or the [Department of] Juvenile Services ADMINISTRATION, shall use the Maryland Children's Center for purposes of evaluation only and not for purposes
