(3) Funds, other than those designated out of the general funds of the State, which are allocated from federal, county, or municipal sources, or from State special fund sources, may be used to pay overtime to law-enforcement employees of the Maryland State Police whether or not the maximum limits for each rank listed above have been paid. A rank above captain is not entitled to receive overtime in any case.

(4) If an employee's rank is changed during the year, he shall be entitled to the higher of the two applicable yearly overtime maximums for the duration of the year. Overtime compensation may not be paid to law-enforcement employees taking basic training at the Police Academy, or to any law-enforcement employee attending school or taking other training the length of which course is more than [(30)] 30 days. Overtime payments may not be taken into consideration for retirement or pension purposes.

(5) Overtime compensation may not be paid to law-enforcement employees of the Maryland State Police for hours worked as a result of loss of leave attributed to disciplinary action by the Superintendent of the State Police. "Leave," as referred to in this paragraph, means regular leave which is the two days of leave that normally follows the five days of duty assigned these employees and not holiday, vacation or personal leave.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1978.
