

same, under a written lease, who with intent to defraud the lessor, shall remove any personal property so leased, beyond the limits of the city or county where it is located when so leased, without the permission of the lessor first had and obtained in writing, or any lessee who, with intent as aforesaid, removes, secretes, hypothecates, destroys or sells the same shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on indictment therefor and conviction thereof, shall be imprisoned not more than six months, or shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars, or both, in the discretion of the court.]

[Larceny]

[340.

Every person convicted of the crime of larceny to the value of one hundred dollars or upwards, or as accessory before the fact shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall restore the money, goods or things, taken to the owner, or shall pay him the full value thereof, and shall be fined not more than $1,000 or be imprisoned for not more than 15 years, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court.]

[341.

(a) If any person steals, takes, or carries away personal goods of another under the value of $100, that person is guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall restore the stolen goods and chattels or pay their full value to the owner, and be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned for not more than 18 months, or both fined and imprisoned. All actions or prosecutions under this section shall be commenced within two years after the commission of the offense.

(b) All prosecutions for violations of the provisions of this section shall be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction in this State.]

[343A.

(a) Any person who breaks open, damages, destroys, or tampers with any coin-operated machine, and steals any money or goods contained therein, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be imprisoned for not more than eighteen months, or fined not more than one thousand dollars, or both fined and imprisoned.

(b) As used in this section, the term "coin-operated machine" shall include any automatic vending machine, slot machine, coin-box telephone, automatic change-making machine, or other receptacle designed to receive coin or currency in connection with the sale, use, or enjoyment of property or service.]

[Larceny - Corn, Melons, Fruits, Vegetables, Shrubbery,