

3.

(c) The State Administration shall establish and, through its ~~division~~ BUREAU of ~~child support enforcement AND DOMESTIC--COLLECTIONS~~, administer a program for recovery of child support payments. The Administration may adopt rules and regulations governing operation of the program.

5A.

The State Administration shall establish and maintain within its ~~division~~ BUREAU of ~~child support enforcement AND DOMESTIC--COLLECTIONS~~ a central registry of records containing all available identifying information relating to parents who have deserted or appear to have deserted children, whether or not the children are likely, or liable to be, recipients of public assistance or foster care. To effectuate the purposes of this section, the State Administration may request and shall receive from departments, boards, bureaus, commissions, and other agencies of the State or any of its political subdivisions, and the same are authorized to provide, the information, assistance and data that will enable the State Administration or the State's attorney of the jurisdiction involved to locate deserting or absent parents and to enforce their liability for the support of their children. Any records established pursuant to this section shall be available only to authorized representatives of the State and local departments and other persons having a right to the records in their official capacities.

59.

~~{a} There is a division of child support enforcement AND--DOMESTIC--COLLECTIONS in the Social Services Administration.~~

Article 89C - Support of Dependents

14.

(k) If the ~~division~~ BUREAU of ~~child support enforcement AND--DOMESTIC--COLLECTIONS~~ or a person whom the ~~division~~ BUREAU approves for child support services is the petitioner, the petitioner shall be represented as provided in Article 88A, §59(d)(c).

17.

The ~~division~~ BUREAU of ~~child support enforcement AND DOMESTIC--COLLECTIONS~~ of the State Social Services Administration is the State information agency under this article and shall:

(1) Compile a list of the courts and their addresses in this State having jurisdiction under this article and transmit the same to the State information