

The commissioners shall serve without compensation for their duties, but shall be reimbursed for necessary travel and other expenses incurred in the performance of their duties in accordance with the standard travel regulations. The terms of the commissioners shall be six years, or until their successors are appointed and qualified. Commissioners shall be eligible for reappointment. Upon the death, disability, resignation, or removal of any commissioner, the Secretary of Economic and Community Development, with the approval of the Governor, shall appoint a person to serve for the unexpired term. From time to time the Secretary of Economic and Community Development, with the approval of the Governor, shall designate one member of the Commission as chairman, who shall hold such office at the pleasure of the Secretary of Economic and Community Development.]

260.

[It shall be the duty of the Director and the Commission to] THE DIVISION SHALL:

(1) Investigate and assemble information pertinent to the economic development, industrial opportunities and economic resources of the State, including raw materials, power and water resources, transportation facilities, markets, labor, banking and financing facilities, industrial sites and other fields of research.

(2) Encourage location of new industrial enterprises in the State and the retention and expansion of present enterprises in coordination with local governing bodies and local economic development agencies.

(3) Coordinate its activities with those of the Division of Tourist Development in the promotion of tourism in the State.

(4) Encourage formation of local and sectional development committees and cooperate with local civic groups and other local, state and federal development agencies.

(5) Disseminate information in the interest of industrial development in this State, by publication, advertising and other means.

(6) Collect and assemble information and data available from other State agencies and departments.

261.

So far as may be practicable in performance of its duties in connection with collection and assembling of information, the [Commission and/or the Director] DIVISION shall make use of [such] pertinent data [as may be] secured from the boards, commissions, agencies and institutions of this State. The [Commission and the Director] DIVISION shall have access to all records, data, information and