

Agency Code of Ethics

Each appointing authority in the executive branch of the State government, which shall include all departments, commissions, boards, and authorities whose agency head or members are appointed by the Governor, is directed to adopt this Code of Ethics and to require all of its officers and employees to comply with the standards of ethical conduct prescribed herein. Each appointing authority shall submit a written report to the Governor describing the action that has been taken in promulgating the standards of ethical conduct set forth in this code.

---

PROCLAMATION OF SEPTEMBER 18, 1977

BROOKS ROBINSON DAY

WHEREAS, Brooks Robinson, as the finest third baseman ever to play Major League baseball, has made a lasting contribution to the Baltimore Orioles, the City of Baltimore and the State of Maryland and to the world of sporting endeavor; and

WHEREAS, Throughout his career, his extraordinary deeds on and off the baseball diamond have marked him as one of Maryland's most precious natural resources, and have won for him the admiration and affection of countless fans around the world; and

WHEREAS, It is fitting that all Marylanders join in saluting the achievements of this outstanding citizen of our State whose personal character and abilities stand as a model for all people, young and old alike; and

WHEREAS, To commemorate his 23 years as Baltimore's most beloved Oriole, Brooks Robinson is being honored by his fans and the community on "Thanks Brooks" Day, Sunday, September 18 at Memorial Stadium;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BLAIR LEE III, Acting Governor of the State of Maryland, do hereby proclaim September 18, 1977, as in Maryland, and I commend this observance to all our citizens.

BROOKS ROBINSON DAY