

The fifth sentence of present Art. 77A, §9(f), which grants the student member the right to "exercise all duties and responsibilities, including the right to vote, of a member of the local board of the community college trustees", is deleted as unnecessary. The right to exercise these powers is implicit in the concept of membership.

The first sentence of present Art. 77A, §9E(c), which required the State Board for Community Colleges to "convene initially the nominating committee" is deleted as obsolete. The committee has been convened and is a continuing body.

As to subsection (c) {3} (i) of this section, two of the terms expire in each odd numbered year and three of the terms expire in each even numbered year.
