

without substantive change from Art. 77A, §59(a) through (e) and (g).

Present Art. 77A, §59(f) is deleted as unnecessary in light of the similar general provisions of §18-106 of this title.

As to subsection (c) (1) of this section, see the revisor's note to §18-802 of this title.

GENERAL REVISOR'S NOTE:

Article 77A, §51, which provides for the withdrawal of institutions from an old waiver of tuition program is deleted as obsolete. The program was repealed by Ch. 469, Acts of 1967. The program provided one scholarship for each public and private college in this State.

Article 77A, §52, which requires the State Scholarship Board to enforce the bonds of the recipients of teacher tuition waivers is combined with similar provisions relating to other scholarships and now appears in Subtitle 1 of this title.

Article 77A, §53, which specifies the procedure for the recipient of a tuition waiver for teacher training to satisfy his bond is deleted as obsolete. The program referred to was repealed by Ch. 469, Acts of 1967.
