

The pension or salary shall be paid by the City of Baltimore in the same manner as the salaries of the judges of the court for the city are paid.

(2) The surviving spouse of every elected judge of the court of Baltimore City shall be paid one half of the pension to which his spouse was entitled at the time of his death, or would have become entitled to by reason of attaining 60 years of age. In each instance, the pension shall be paid to the spouse until remarriage or death. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply in the case of a spouse who was married to a sitting judge for a period of less than three years prior to his death, and to a retired judge for a period less than three years before his retirement.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the provisions of this Act apply only to judges sitting as of its effective date and their surviving spouses, and only if those judges do not receive any other pension for public service except social security and veterans' benefits, and military pensions.

SECTION ~~2~~3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1979.

Approved May 29, 1979.
