

[Subtitle 3. Frostburg State College.]

[14-301.]

(a) There is a Frostburg State College police force.

(b) (1) A Frostburg State College police officer has all the powers granted to a peace and police officer in this State.

(2) However, a Frostburg State College police officer may exercise these powers only on property that is owned, leased, operated by, or under the control of Frostburg State College. The police officer may not exercise these powers on any other property unless:

(i) Engaged in fresh pursuit of a suspected offender;

(ii) Necessary to facilitate the orderly flow of traffic to and from property owned, leased, operated by, or under the control of Frostburg State College; or

(iii) Ordered to do so by the Governor.

(c) (1) In consultation with the Superintendent of the Maryland State Police and the Maryland Police Training Commission, the board of trustees shall adopt standards, qualifications, and prerequisites of character, training, education, human and public relations, and experience for Frostburg State College police officers, including standards for the performance of their duties.

(2) To the extent practicable, the board shall adopt standards that are similar to the standards adopted for the Maryland State Police.

(3) Standards adopted on or after July 1, 1976, on minimum hiring qualifications of Frostburg State College police officers may not affect the status of any individual who was a qualified Frostburg State College police officer on that date.

(d) The board of trustees shall adopt rules and regulations governing the operation and conduct of the Frostburg State College police force and of Frostburg State College police officers.]

[Subtitle 4. Towson State University.]

[14-401.]

(a) There is a Towson State University police force.

(b) (1) A Towson State University police officer has all the powers granted to a peace and police officer in this State.