

(2) However, a Towson State University police officer may exercise these powers only on property that is owned, leased, operated by, or under the control of Towson State University. The police officer may not exercise these powers on any other property unless:

(i) Engaged in fresh pursuit of a suspected offender;

(ii) Necessary to facilitate the orderly flow of traffic to and from property owned, leased, operated by, or under the control of Towson State University; or

(iii) Ordered to do so by the Governor.

(c) (1) In consultation with the Superintendent of the Maryland State Police and the Maryland Police Training Commission, the board of trustees shall adopt standards, qualifications, and prerequisites of character, training, education, human and public relations, and experience for Towson State University police officers, including standards for the performance of their duties.

(2) To the extent practicable, the board shall adopt standards that are similar to the standards adopted for the Maryland State Police.

(3) Standards adopted on or after July 1, 1976, on minimum hiring qualifications of Towson State University police officers may not affect the status of any individual who was a qualified Towson State University police officer on that date.

(d) The board of trustees shall adopt rules and regulations governing the operation and conduct of the Towson State University police force and of Towson State University police officers.]
