

(a) Upon receiving a report of violation of this subtitle from the Board, or upon receiving a complaint, deemed by the Attorney General to be justified, of the violation from any other source, the Attorney General shall file a petition in the appropriate circuit court for a mandatory injunction, ordering the violator to take actions that will cure the violation. The Attorney General shall give the alleged violator notice of his determination and intention to file a petition at least 15 days prior to filing the petition. If the complaint is from a source other than the Board, the Attorney General shall, prior to taking action under this section, determine whether the Board has previously rendered an advisory opinion with respect to the subject matter of the complaint.

(b) The equity jurisdiction of the various circuit courts includes jurisdiction to issue mandatory injunctions necessary to compel compliance with the provisions of this subtitle, and these injunctions are enforceable by contempt proceedings in accordance with the laws and Maryland Rules relating to contempt.

(c) The State Comptroller, upon the issuance of any mandatory injunction against a person subject to this subtitle, shall suspend payment of any salary or other compensation to that person pending full compliance with the terms of the injunction.

(d) The Attorney General may not institute any action for an injunction if, prior to or within 15 days of the receipt of the Attorney General's notice, the person alleged to be in violation sought an advisory opinion from the Board with respect to the matter and, thereafter, within 30 days of the issuance of the Board's opinion, complied in full with the opinion.]

[29-9.] 4-105. Judges and candidates for judgeships.

(a) The Court of Appeals of Maryland shall, pursuant to its administrative authority over the judicial branch of the government of the State of Maryland in accordance with Article 4, Section [18A] 18 of the Constitution of Maryland, promulgate and administer rules and regulations designed to require the judges of the several courts of the State, whether elected or appointed, including all judges of the several orphans' courts, AND MASTERS, EXAMINERS, COMMISSIONERS, AUDITORS, AND REFEREES IN THE JUDICIAL BRANCH, to periodically disclose, as public records, such relevant information concerning their financial affairs as may be deemed necessary or appropriate to promote the continued trust and confidence of the people of the State of Maryland in the integrity of the State judiciary.

(b) Each candidate for nomination for, or election to, an elected judgeship shall file at or before the same time that person's certificate of candidacy is filed, the same
