

name of the person whose statement was examined or copied.

(h) Enforcement. — The enforcement provisions of this subtitle shall also pertain to the commissioners of the Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission, the commissioners of the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission, and the commissioners of the Washington Suburban Transit Commission and, upon issuance of a mandatory injunction against a commissioner pursuant to this section and subtitle, the appropriate commission shall suspend payment of any salary or other compensation to the commissioner pending full compliance with the terms of the injunction.]

TITLE 5. LOBBYING DISCLOSURE.

[Lobbying]

[5. Definitions.

(a) As used in this subtitle, the following terms have the meanings indicated;

(b) "Lobbyist" means any person who, within a reporting period, in the presence of any official in the legislative or executive branch, including the Governor, has communicated with that official with the purpose of influencing any legislative action and who either incurs expenses of $100 or more or receives $500 or more as compensation, other than the personal travel or subsistence expenses of the person or representatives of the person, for the purpose of influencing legislative action.

(c) "Lobbying" means the performing of any act requiring registration.

(d) "Executive branch lobbyist" means any person who expends a cumulative value of $75 or more during a reporting period on an official in the executive branch for meals, beverages, special events or gifts in connection with or with the purpose of influencing executive branch activity.

(e) "Compensation" means any money or thing of value received or to be received by one acting as a registrant from an employer, whether in the form of fee, salary, expenses, forbearance, forgiveness, or any other form of recompense, and any combination thereof. If compensation is to be reported by or for a person whose lobbying is only a portion of that person's employment, it is sufficient to report a prorated amount based on the time devoted to lobbying compared to the time devoted to his employment, and to indicate that the amount reported is a prorated amount.

(f) "Employer" means any person paying or agreeing to pay compensation to a person as a registrant.

(g) "Person" includes an individual, partnership, association, corporation or any other organization or group of persons.