

court and the governmental entities concerned, and I am satisfied that such language can be written into the law that will satisfy all the requirements of due process and not impose burdens on the motorists, governmental entities, or the court.

Finally, in reluctantly requesting the veto of this bill, the Chief Judge informs me that he has discussed his concerns with the measure's sponsor, has advised him that the court's administrative staff and its Administrative Judges will draft amendments that would satisfy its laudable purposes while avoiding the legal and practical problem now embodied in it, and that the sponsor does not object to this course of action.

For these reasons I have decided to veto Senate Bill 592.

Sincerely,
Harry Hughes
Governor

-----

Senate Bill No. 625

AN ACT concerning

Anne Arundel County - Public School Closings

FOR the purpose of prohibiting the closing of Anne Arundel County public schools or the submission of a recommendation to the State Superintendent of Schools that they are no longer needed for school purposes without the approval of the County Executive and a majority of the County Council or a majority, with the advice of the Anne Arundel County delegation to the General Assembly; and authorizing the County Council to adopt rules and regulations to implement this provision.

May 29, 1979

Honorable James Clark, Jr.
President of the Senate
State House
Annapolis, Maryland 21404

Dear Mr. President:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed Senate Bill 625.