

(3) (f) Any member of the Teachers' Retirement System of the State of Maryland who transferred his credit from the employees' retirement system of the City of Baltimore prior to July 1, 1971, from and after July 1, 1972, shall pay the rate of contribution for his attained age [of] AT the time of his enrollment in the city system which was in effect at the time of his enrollment in the State Teachers' System, except that said rate shall not exceed 5 percent as provided in § 89(2)(a) of this subtitle.

85.

(7) A member may receive credit towards eligibility for benefits provided under § 86 of this subtitle for out-of-state public school teaching service, nonpublic school teaching service or postsecondary teaching service up to a maximum of ten years if the member files a claim for it with the board of trustees and pays into the retirement system an amount equal to the reserves required to fund the additional allowance for whatever years of out-of-state and/or nonpublic school teaching service or postsecondary teaching service as he may claim. The member may pay for the reserves on an installment basis by contributing not less [that] THAN 2 percent of current salary a year; or by transferring, upon written request to the board of trustees, any prior contributions to a voluntary retirement benefit, including an additional annuity under Section 89 (1)(d) of this article, less any costs of administering that benefit. Any member electing to contribute toward this service who retires before completing the payments required to purchase this service shall receive pro rata credit for service purchased prior to the date of retirement, but the member may elect at the time of retirement to make an additional lump-sum payment for the amount necessary to receive full credit. In the event a member dies in active service while paying for credit, and if the credit qualifies for benefits under § 86(8)(b) of this subtitle, the surviving spouse may pay for the appropriate final adjustment for such out-of-state or public school teaching or postsecondary teaching service as he may have claimed.

87A.

(e) Indemnification may not be made (1) with respect to any suit, claim, or matter as to which the person was adjudged to be liable for gross negligence or wilful misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Teachers' Retirement System; or (2) for an independent contractor furnishing services to the Teachers' Retirement [Systems] SYSTEM.

99.

(a) Should the board of regents of the University of Maryland elect, by resolution, approved by the board of trustees of the retirement system, to have the members of the faculty and staff of that institution, hereinafter
