Provided that the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene devise and present to the Senate Budget and Taxation Committee and the House Appropriations Committee, for their approval, a satisfactory plan for solving the long-term problems of the nursing home rate reimbursement. Such a plan shall be submitted no later than July 15, 1979, and provided that $1,685,988 shall not be expended pending approval of the plan by the Senate Budget and Taxation Committee and the House Appropriations Committee. In approving or rejecting such a plan, the Committees shall recommend to the Governor what part of the $1,685,988 F.Y. 1980 funds are not to be expended and revert to the General Fund. Any such reversion shall not be used for any other purposes.
