

Article 75 1/2 - Professional Engineers

2.

(e) (1) "Practice of engineering" means any service or creative work the performance of which requires engineering education, training, and experience in the application of special knowledge of the mathematical, physical and engineering sciences to such services or creative work as consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, and inspection of construction for the purpose of assuring compliance with specifications and drawings in connection with any public or private utilities, structures, buildings, machines, equipment, processes, works, systems or projects.

(2) "Practice of engineering" does not include the work ordinarily performed by persons who operate or maintain machinery or equipment, geodetic surveying, cartography, geological engineering [or], general real estate practices, such as appraising, evaluating or estimating the value of real property, OR THE EXECUTING AS A CONTRACTOR, OR SUPERVISING AS A FOREMAN OR SUPERINTENDENT, OF WORK DESIGNED BY A PROFESSIONAL ENGINEER OR--REGISTERED ARCHITECT.

(3) A person shall be construed to practice or offer to practice engineering, within the meaning and intent of this article if the person practices any branch of the profession of engineering or through the use of some other title implies that he is an engineer or that he is registered under this article or holds himself out as able or willing to perform or does perform any engineering service or work or any other service designated by the practitioner which is commonly recognized as engineering.

[(h) The execution, as a contractor, of work designed by a professional engineer or the supervision of the construction of such work as a foreman or superintendent is not the practice of engineering.]

[(i)] (H) Any person having the necessary qualifications prescribed in this article to entitle him to registration is eligible for registration although he may not be practicing his profession at the time of making his application.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1979.

Approved May 1, 1979.
