

him publish pronounce and declare the same to be his last Will and Testament, and that at the time of his so doing he was to the best of their Apprehensions of sound disposing mind memory understanding, and that William Woodall the other subscribing Witness was present at the same time and signed his name as Witness to this Will, together with these deponents in the presence of the testator, and at his request, and in the presence of each other

Before Nicholas King

In the name of God Amen I Martha Ann Whichcote of Kent County in Maryland being sick and weak but blessed be God of sound and well disposing memory calling to mind the uncertainty of this transitory life, do make this my last Will Testament as follows . . . 1st I give & bequeath unto my daughter Elizabeth Whichcote six silver table spoons, one table & desk & half a dozen of chairs, and a Mare called Careless & a Solt called Nettle & sliding chair besides an equal part of the Remainder of my Estate.

2^d I give to my daughter Sarah Whichcote one Negro Boy called Will with tea tongs silver, five silver tea spoons six chairs, two tables one Horse called Spark over & above an equal part of the Remainder of my Estate, . . . 3^d I give unto my Grand daughter Rebecca Whichcote

one Negro boy called Tom, one bed & furniture, one horse called Crack, over & above & besides an equal part of the remainder of my Estate. . . 4th I give unto my aft daughter Elizabeth Whichcote

my riding carriage over & above & besides an equal part of the Remainder of my Estate. . . 5th I give the Remainder of my Estate after the Legacies paid to the Legatees to be ^{equally} divided between all my Children & Grand daughter Rebecca Whichcote, but not to enjoy any of my Slaves untill my aft daughter Sarah Whichcote & Grand daughter Rebecca Whichcote arrives to the age of sixteen years, but remain in the hands of my Excutrix hereafter named

I hereby constitute & appoint my daughter Elizabeth Whichcote