

on said road that leads from head of Chester to Duck creek as aforesaid then back from said road back ~~to~~ ^{from} head of Chester one hundred yards, and then to run such other courses as will make the said Lot as nearly square as possible, and to contain Eighty yards by one hundred yards of Land. — I give and bequeath to my son William Knock his heirs and assigns forever, one lot of Ground lying and being in Kent County and State aforesaid, part of the aforesaid tract of Land called Chesterfield, beginning at the upper corner of the first lines of the lot of Ground bequeathed to my son Nathaniel, and running Eighty yards front on the road that leads from the Head of Chester to Duck creek as aforesaid, then back from said road one hundred yards, then to run such other courses as will ^{make} the said lot as nearly square as possible, and to contain eighty yards by one hundred yards of Land. — My Will is also that if I die before the crop of wheat now on the ground is reaped that it be sold and the money to be equally divided between my wife Sarah Knock & my children. My Will is also that my son Henry Knock pay my sons William, Daniel, John, and Nathaniel and my Daughters Sarah & Elizabeth thirty pounds each when they arrive at the age (the Boys of twenty one) and the Girls sixteen years. — I give and bequeath to my son Henry Knock his heirs and assigns forever all that tract and parcel of Land called Chesterfield lying and being in Kent County and State aforesaid except the lots before bequeathed to my son John, Daniel, Nathaniel, and William. — The residue of my Estate after my wife's thirds and the legacies before bequeathed are taken out I desire may be equally divided between my children share and share alike. — In testimony of which I have hereunto ^{affixed} my Hand and affixed my seal the day & year first above written.

Math. ^{this} mark Knock ^{Seal}

Signed Seal and Del. in the presence of us

W^m Knock, Mary M Woodall, Geo Jackson

April 6. 1704 Then came William Knock, Mary Woodall & George Jackson the three subscribing Witnesses to the within last Will & Testament of Nathaniel Knock late of Kent County deced, and severally