

community without special conditions imposed by the court. the court shall enter an order releasing the person subject to the conditions. THIS CONDITIONAL RELEASE MAY NOT BE FOR A PERIOD LONGER THAN 5 YEARS UNLESS EXTENDED PURSUANT TO SUBSECTION 27C(B).

(i) All findings by the court under subsections (e) and (f) of this section shall be upon [a preponderance of the] CLEAR AND CONVINCING evidence. The order shall contain a concise statement of the court's findings and the reasons for them.

(b) The State's attorney, THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND MENTAL HYGIENE, or a person who has been conditionally released pursuant to § 27B(f) may apply for modification of one or more of the conditions imposed upon his release by notifying the court and the other party in writing of his request and the reasons for modification. After considering the request and the evidence the court may enter an order which modifies one or more of the conditions upon which release is predicated, imposes appropriate additional conditions, REVOKES CONDITIONAL RELEASE, or continues in effect the original conditions.

If the Department of HEALTH AND Mental Hygiene is of the view that a person committed pursuant to §§ 24 [or 27], 27, 27B, OR 27C of this article (except during the first ninety (90) days of commitment following a finding of not guilty by reason of insanity) not otherwise subject to release without condition, may be released on condition without danger to himself or to the safety of the person or property of others, it shall make application for the release of the person in a report to the court by which the person was committed and shall present a copy of the application to the State's attorney and the clerk of the court of the county from which the defendant was committed. The clerk of the court shall send a copy of the application to the last [council] COUNSEL for each person. [If the court is satisfied that the committed person may be released on condition without danger to himself or to the safety of the person or property of others, the court shall order his release on reasonable conditions as the court determines to be necessary. If within five (5) years after the conditional release of a committed person the court shall determine, after hearing evidence, that the conditions of release have not been fulfilled and that his continued release on conditions constitutes by reason of mental disorder a danger to himself or to the safety of the person or property of others, the court shall forthwith order him to be recommitted.] THE COURT SHALL MAKE A DETERMINATION PURSUANT TO § 27B(E) OR (F) AND PREPARE THE APPROPRIATE ORDER. IF THE COURT ORDERS RELEASE UPON CONDITIONS, THE STATE'S ATTORNEY, THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND MENTAL HYGIENE, OR
