

selected work projects, or other special programs, designated by the warden, superintendent, sheriff or administrator of the institution and approved by the [jail programming and inspection officer, assigned to the inmate,] SECRETARY, he or she may be allowed an additional deduction of days, not exceeding five in number, for each month of the period of his or her commitment or sentence.

(4) For each and every violation of the rules and discipline of the institution, the person herein confined may forfeit all gained time in the month in which such delinquency occurs. Further, according to the aggravated nature or frequency of his offense, a deduction may be made of some or all of his gained time for good conduct under paragraph (1) of this section, but the deductions allowed and earned under paragraphs (2) and (3) hereof shall not be affected thereby. An inmate may not be required to forfeit or to suffer a deduction of gained time unless prior to the forfeiture or deduction he is afforded at least the basic ingredients of procedural due process

(5) If the inmate is ultimately sentenced to a state facility or transferred to another county or city facility his records of accrued credits for diminution of sentence from the transferring facility will be forwarded, with him or her, to the receiving institution, and the inmate is entitled to a diminution of the period of his or her confinement by the number of days of accrued credit.

(6) An inmate entitled to a diminution of the period of his or her confinement under this section who is transferred to a hospital or mental institution may not be denied credit under this section.
