

any costs of administering that benefit. CONTRIBUTIONS QUALIFYING UNDER § 403(B) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE AS AMENDED FROM TIME TO TIME MAY NOT BE TRANSFERRED Any member electing to contribute toward this service who retires before completing the payments required to purchase this service shall receive pro rata credit for service purchased prior to the date of retirement, but the member may elect at the time of retirement to make an additional lump-sum payment for the amount necessary to receive full credit. In the event a member dies in active service while paying for credit, and if the credit qualifies for benefits under this subtitle, the surviving spouse may pay for the appropriate final adjustment. Otherwise, the appropriate final adjustment shall be made in the year in which a member retires, and shall be for previous service time:

- (a) With an out-of-state public school;
- (b) With the federal government;
- (c) With a nonpublic school;
- (d) With any municipal corporation;
- (e) As a postsecondary teacher.

145.

(9) (a) Once each year [during the first 5 years following the retirement of a member on a disability retirement allowance, and once in every 3-year period thereafter,] the board of trustees may, and on his application shall, require any disability beneficiary who has not yet attained the age of 62 to undergo a medical examination. The examination may be made at the place of residence of the beneficiary or any other place mutually agreed on, by a physician designated by the board of trustees. If any disability beneficiary who is under the age of 62 refuses to submit to the medical examination, his allowance may be discontinued until he withdraws his refusal, and if he continues to refuse for 1 year, all his rights in and to his pension may be revoked by the board of trustees.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1980.

Approved May 20, 1980.
