

section AND AFTER JULY 1, 1982, IT SHALL BE UNLAWFUL FOR ANY PERSON, FIRM OR CORPORATION, BOTH MUNICIPAL AND PRIVATE, TO OPERATE A WATERWORKS, WASTE-WATER WORKS OR INDUSTRIAL WASTE-WATER WORKS UNLESS THE SPECIFIED OPERATORS OR INDUSTRIAL OPERATORS HAVE BEEN DULY CERTIFIED UNDER THIS SECTION. Any person, firm or corporation, both municipal and private, violating any provisions of this section or the rules and regulations adopted thereunder is guilty of a misdemeanor and liable for a penalty of not more than [twenty-five dollars ($25.00)] $25 a day. Each day of employment in violation of this section or any rules and regulations adopted thereunder shall constitute a separate offense.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1980.

Approved May 20, 1980.

CHAPTER 618

(House Bill 950)

AN ACT concerning

State Board of Inspection of Horse Riding Stables

FOR the purpose of transferring the provisions relating to the State Board of Inspection of Horse Riding Stables, as codified in Article 56 (Licenses) of the Code, to the Agriculture Article; defining certain terms; requiring licensing and certification for a person to operate or maintain any horse riding stable with certain exceptions; including the Board within the State Department of Agriculture; providing for the membership, compensation, and expenses of the Board; providing for the disposition of moneys collected by the Board; giving the Board the power to make rules and regulations and hire an inspector; providing for the application for a license, and the fee to be charged for inspection; providing for failure to pass an inspection; creating classes of licenses; providing that the license is the property of the State; providing for the posting, term, renewal, transfer, suspension, or revocation of a license; permitting the Board to impound a horse under certain conditions; providing for injunctive authority; providing a penalty; providing for the termination of this Act as it relates to the Board; providing for the continued employment of the present inspector as a full-time employee; providing that the present Board members shall serve until their terms expire; and relating generally to the State Board of Inspection of Horse Riding Stables.