

The provisions of this section apply to all contractual relations entered into by married or unmarried women, including retail credit accounts [of] OR retail installment sales as [defined] DESCRIBED, respectively, in Title 12, Subtitles 5 and 6 of the Commercial Law Article of the Code.

Article 48A - Insurance Code

240AA.

(b) An insurer intending to take an action subject to the provisions of this section shall, on or before forty-five days prior to the proposed effective date of the action, send written notice of its intended action to the insured at his last known address. A written notice of cancellation or nonrenewal shall be sent by certified mail. All other notices of action subject to the provisions of this section shall be sent by certificate of mailing. The notice shall be in triplicate, and shall state in clear and specific terms, on a form approved by the Commissioner:

(iv) If there is coupled with the notice an offer to continue or renew the policy in accordance with [§ 240C] § 240C-1 hereof, the name of the person or persons to be excluded from coverage, and what the premium would be if the policy is continued or renewed with such person or persons excluded from coverage;

Article 56 - Licenses

29.

(b) A huckster, hawker or peddler may not sell or offer for sale any vegetables, eggs, poultry, meats or other farm products, at wholesale or retail, or any dry goods or clothing at retail until he first has taken out a license for that purpose in accordance with the provisions of this section. However, this [subtitle] section does not apply to farmers or growers selling their own vegetables or other perishable farm products.

114.

Every person, club, corporation or association which may hold or exercise any of the privileges conferred by this subtitle shall, within 72 hours after the determination of every contest, furnish to the Commission a written report, under oath, showing the exact number of tickets sold for such contest, and the amount of gross proceeds thereof, and such other matters as the Commission may prescribe, and shall also within the said time pay to the said Commission a license fee of ten percentum (10%) of its total gross receipts from the sale of tickets of admission and the sale of radio, television or motion picture rights to such boxing or sparring or wrestling match, contest or exhibition, with a minimum fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00) where four (4) or less persons are employed for said contest, and a
