

judgment of conviction of an offense described in subsections (b) or (c) and of each docket entry reflecting the acceptance of a plea of nolo contendere to such an offense.

(2) The prosecuting officer of the State or any of its subdivisions having responsibility for any investigation or other proceeding in which a person admits acts or omissions which would subject that person to disqualification under subsection (c) shall transmit to the Board [of Public Works] a copy or summary of the written statement or transcript reflecting that admission as soon as the prosecuting officer determines that such action will not prejudice any pending or anticipated investigation or other proceeding. The Board [of Public Works] shall keep a roster of all persons and business entities disqualified or subject to disqualification under this section. The roster shall be a public record.

(a) A contract [for any construction work] subject to [§ 7 of] this article may not be awarded to any contractor unless the contract contains provisions obligating the contractor not to discriminate in any manner against any employee or applicant for employment because of sex, race, creed, color, or national origin and obligating the contractor to include a similar clause in all subcontracts, except subcontracts for standard commercial supplies or raw materials. In addition, the contractor and subcontractor shall agree to post in conspicuous places, available to employees and applicants for employment, notices setting forth the provisions of the nondiscrimination clause.

(b) Failure to include such a contract provision [renders] MAY RENDER any contract void ab initio AT THE ELECTION OF THE STATE, but any party shall be entitled to the reasonable value of services performed and materials supplied. [However, the State may elect to compel the performance of any contract under this section not containing the nondiscrimination provisions, but recovery against the proper party shall be limited to the reasonable value of services performed and materials supplied.]

(c) Where the contractor wilfully fails to comply with the nondiscrimination provisions the State may, where the contract is still executory in part, compel continued performances of the contract, but it shall be liable only for the reasonable value of services performed and materials supplied from the date that the breach of contract was discovered or should have been discovered, and any sums previously paid by the State under the contract, shall be set off against the sums to become due as the contract is performed.

(d) If the subcontractor wilfully fails to comply with the nondiscrimination provisions the contractor may avoid
