

of this section; all the fines to be imposed under this section shall be paid to the State.

(d) This section is not to apply to apothecaries and such apothecaries may sell on Sunday drugs, medicines, and patent medicines as on weekdays; and this section shall not apply to the sale of newspapers and periodicals.

[(e) In addition to those articles which may now be lawfully sold, disposed of, bartered, dealt in or given away in Howard County on Sunday, retailers may sell, dispose of, barter, deal in or give away on Sunday in Howard County the following: (1) medical supplies and medicines, (2) necessary and essential toilet articles, (3) antique and specialty items, souvenirs, pottery and chinaware, (4) vegetables, eggs, dairy products, fresh meat, including the cutting and processing thereof, and smoked or cured meats, (5) food prepared for human consumption which is consumed on the premises where sold, (6) all items necessary for the repair and maintenance of motor vehicles, the furnishing of which is immediately essential to the well-being or safety of the traveling public.]

[(f)] (E) In Allegany County this section shall not apply to or prohibit retail sales on any Sunday by:

(1) Food stores, drugstores, bakery or baked goods stores, newsstands, selling and/or delivering newspapers and periodicals, gasoline service stations, nurseries or shops selling flowers and plants, or roadside vending stands selling fruits, vegetables, or plants and flowers; provided that, for the entire time during which any such retail establishment is open on any Sunday, not more than four persons, including any owner, manager, assistant manager, or delivery personnel, are employed by the retail establishment or working therein, regardless of the number of leased departments, concession areas, booths, or stalls located therein; and

(2) Restaurants, lunchrooms, or ice-cream parlors.

Any violation of this subsection shall be prosecuted as provided for in subsection (c) of this section.

[(g)] (F) This section shall not apply (1) to any person who conscientiously believes that the seventh day of the week ought to be observed as the Sabbath and who actually refrains from secular business and labor on that day, and whose business establishment or establishments (whether a sole proprietorship, partnership or corporation) are actually closed on that day; or (2) to any person who conscientiously believes that the Sabbath begins at sundown on Friday night and ends at sundown on Saturday night and who actually refrains from secular business and labor during such period, and whose business establishment or
