

[(b) (4)] (2) If [the] AN alleged drug addict does not comply with such order, the court shall issue a warrant and shall direct any peace officer or police officer in the State commanding such officer (i) to take the alleged drug addict into custody, and (ii) to bring such alleged drug addict promptly before the court for a determination whether there are reasonable grounds to order him to undergo a medical examination at a facility designated by the [Authority] ADMINISTRATION. The alleged drug addict shall not be subjected to any more restraint than is necessary for the purposes specified in the warrant. Such peace officer or police officer shall exhibit the warrant to the alleged drug addict, and inform him of the purpose for which he is being taken into custody. If the court is not then in session, the alleged drug addict may be held for a reasonable time at a facility designated by the [Authority] ADMINISTRATION or at any other detention facility until such time as the court is in session. In such case, the director or head of the facility or his duly appointed representative shall advise the alleged DRUG addict of the nature of the proceeding, the reason for his detention and that he will appear before a judge at the next court session in connection with the allegation that he is a drug addict. Such person shall also inform the alleged DRUG addict that he has the right to the aid of counsel at every stage of the proceedings, and that if he desires the aid of counsel and is financially unable to obtain counsel, counsel shall be assigned by the court, and that he is entitled to communicate free of charge, by telephone or letter, in order to obtain counsel and in order to inform a relative or friend of the proceeding.

[(b) (5)] (F) Upon the appearance of [the] AN alleged drug addict OR DRUG ABUSER, the court shall provide [such alleged addict] THE INDIVIDUAL with a copy of any paper not yet served upon him and shall explain that, if the court finds reasonable grounds to believe that [such person] THE INDIVIDUAL is a drug addict OR DRUG ABUSER, it shall order him to undergo a medical examination at a facility designated by the [Authority] ADMINISTRATION. The court shall then advise the alleged drug addict OR DRUG ABUSER that if such medical examination is ordered he shall appear before the court after such examination as provided in [subparagraph (iii) of] subsection [(b)(6)] (G)(3) of this section, and, if the petition and the report of medical examination set forth reasonable grounds to believe that he is a drug addict OR DRUG ABUSER, he may thereafter be certified to the care and custody of the [Authority] ADMINISTRATION pursuant to subsection [(e)] (N) of this section, and that he shall have a right to a hearing prior to such certification. If the alleged drug addict OR DRUG ABUSER appears without counsel, the court shall advise him that he has the right to the aid of counsel at every stage of the proceedings and that if he desires the aid of counsel and is financially unable to obtain counsel, then counsel shall be assigned. The court shall allow the alleged drug addict OR DRUG ABUSER a reasonable time to send for counsel and shall adjourn the proceedings for that purpose. The
