

explosives necessary for the manufacture of ammunition for small arms under such terms and conditions as the Commission deems adequate to protect the health and safety of firemen]. The State Fire Marshal, if requested, may assist police and fire authorities in the disposition of hazardous devices and substances. The State Fire Marshal is hereby authorized to investigate all explosions and fires which may occur in mines, quarries, factories, warehouses, magazines, houses, cars, boats, conveyances and all other places in which explosives or ingredients are manufactured, transported, stored, or used. The State Fire Marshal is authorized to investigate all explosions, accidents, or fires, in which there is reason to believe that explosives were involved. The State Fire Marshal may in his discretion report his findings in such manner as he may deem fit to the proper federal or State authorities to the end that if such explosion has been brought by a willful act, the person or persons causing such act may be proceeded against and brought to justice; or if the explosion has been brought about by accidental means, that precautions may be taken to prevent similar accidents from occurring. In the prosecution of such investigations the employees under the direction of the State Fire Marshal are hereby granted the authority to enter the premises where such explosion or fire has occurred, to examine plans, books and papers, to administer oaths to, and to examine all witnesses and persons concerned, without let or hindrance on the part of the owner, lessee, operator or agent thereof.

SECTION 2 AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1980
