

No. 15

(House Joint Resolution No. 54)

A House Joint Resolution concerning

Adult and Community Education - State
Assumption of Costs

FOR the purpose of requesting the ~~appointment of a study commission, with a certain membership composition, to study complete State aid for adult and community education~~ Subcommittee on Education of the Task Force to Study State-Local Fiscal Relationships to review adult and community education programs and funding as part of its continuing education study.

WHEREAS, History has proven that education is the best method of human development; and

WHEREAS, One of this State's most valuable resources is its educational system; and

WHEREAS, The educational system provides opportunities for people who were unable to take advantage of this system when they were young because of circumstances beyond their control; and

WHEREAS, The educational system provides opportunities for those who would like to continue their education; and

WHEREAS, Some people are denied the opportunities provided by the educational system because of the costs of pursuing their education as an adult; and

WHEREAS, Human development through education is the best manner in which to contribute to the overall growth of the State and thus, the best investment is for this State to make adult and community education available to those who want it; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That a ~~commission be appointed to study the feasibility of State aid to adult education and community education~~ the Subcommittee on Education of the Task Force to Study State-Local Fiscal Relationships review adult and community education programs and funding as part of its continuing education study; and be it further

RESOLVED, That ~~the commission be composed as follows: one member of the Senate of Maryland (appointed by the President); one member of the House of Delegates (appointed by the Speaker); one member of the State Department of Education specializing in adult education programs (appointed by the State Superintendent of Schools); one member from the State Board for Higher Education (appointed~~