

Dear Mr. President:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed Senate Bill 470.

This bill would amend the enabling statute of the State Board of Cosmetologists to require that one of the members of the Board represent beauty culture schools. The bill would prohibit this member from participating in grading examinations, inspecting beauty culture schools, or determining the qualifications for licensing of schools as administered by the Board.

The Attorney General has expressed his concern regarding the anti-competitive impact of this legislation. I share that concern.

Therefore I have decided to veto Senate Bill 470.

Sincerely,
Harry Hughes
Governor

Senate Bill No. 486
