

attorney, now appears as § 11-220 of this title.

The balance of present Art. 41, § 192A(a), which requires the Commissioner to make an annual report regarding the operations of licensees under the Maryland Consumer Loan Law, now appears as § 11-212(b) of this title.

11-106. TERMINATION OF SUBTITLE.

THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SUBTITLE THAT CREATE THE OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF CONSUMER CREDIT AND RELATE TO THE DUTIES AND POWERS OF THE COMMISSIONER ARE OF NO EFFECT AND MAY NOT BE ENFORCED AFTER JULY 1, 1982.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section presently appears as Art. 41, § 198A.

The only changes are those necessary to conform the present statutory cross references to their counterparts in this revision.

Present Art. 41, § 198A applies only to the provisions of Art. 41 that establish the office of the Commissioner and that now appear in this subtitle. It does not apply to the licensing provisions of Arts. 58A, 49, and 83, which now appear as Subtitles 2, 3, and 4, respectively, of this title. The General Assembly may wish to consider providing for the termination of Subtitles 2, 3, and 4 of this title, as well, since the Commissioner administers all the provisions of those subtitles. The General Assembly also may wish to consider: first, whether some of the consumer credit provisions of Title 12 of the Commercial Law Article, many of which are administered or enforced by the Commissioner, should be subject to termination; and, second, whether regulations adopted by the Commissioner should be made expressly subject to termination.

GENERAL REVISOR'S NOTE:

Present Art. 41, §192B, which abolished the offices of the Commissioner of Small Loans and the Administrator of Loan Laws and transferred all related authority and property to the Commissioner of Consumer Credit, is deleted as obsolete, since the transfer and other events contemplated by that section already have occurred. See also Art. 41, §5, which provides that all property of an abolished governmental agency vests in its successor agency or the agency to which its powers and duties are transferred; and Art. 41, §10, which provides that all existing contracts and obligations of an abolished governmental agency remain in effect and shall be performed by its successor agency or the agency to which its powers and duties are transferred.
