

conform with standard usage in the Uniform Commercial Code.

In paragraph (2) of this subsection, the reference to "traveler's check" is added for clarity.

For simplicity, the term "draft" is substituted as the defined term for the present "checks, drafts and/or money orders".

(D) LICENSE.

"LICENSE" MEANS A LICENSE ISSUED BY THE BANK COMMISSIONER UNDER THIS SUBTITLE TO ISSUE OR SELL DRAFTS FOR A FEE OR SERVICE CHARGE.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This subsection presently appears as the fifth paragraph of Art. 11, § 208.

The present references to "checks" and "money orders" are deleted as unnecessary in light of the definition of "draft" in subsection (c) of this section.

The present reference to "the place or places of business designated in the license" is deleted as unnecessary under § 12-406 of this subtitle and, as to the term "places", as erroneous given the provisions of § 12-408(b)(3) of this subtitle.

The only other changes are in style.

REVISOR'S NOTE TO SECTION: The second sentence of the first paragraph of present Art. 11, § 208, which provides that the singular includes the plural, is deleted as unnecessary in light of Art. 1, § 8 of the Code to the same effect.

The second paragraph of present Art. 11, § 208, which defines "Person", is deleted as unnecessary in light of the general definition of "person" in § 1-101 of this article to the same effect.

The third paragraph of present Art. 11, § 208, which defines "Seller", is deleted as unnecessary since the term is not used anywhere in this subtitle.

The sixth paragraph of present Art. 11, § 208, which defines "Licensee", is deleted as unnecessary in light of the definition of "License" in subsection (d) of this section.

The last paragraph of present Art. 11, § 208, which defines "Commissioner", also is deleted as unnecessary. The full title of the "Bank

---