

redeeming the same as they mature and become payable, the County Commissioners of Somerset County shall levy annually a tax upon the assessable property in Somerset County sufficient to pay the annual interest on the bonds and to redeem the same as they become due, until all of said bonds shall mature and be redeemed. The taxes so levied shall be collected in the same manner as other taxes are levied and collected in the County.

SECTION 4. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That out of the actual cash proceeds from the sale of any of the bonds shall be paid first the cost of printing and other outlays and expenses and charges connected with the issue of the same, and the entire balance of the actual cash proceeds, together with any interest that may be received on the same, shall be retained by the County Treasurer of Somerset County until needed for the purposes specified as in this Act.

SECTION 5. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That in the event that any of the persons designated to sign said bonds be unable for any reason to do so the County Commissioners shall by resolution authorize the execution thereof by some other member or officer, and such execution shall be valid and sufficient for all purposes as if the bonds had been executed by the person or persons originally designated herein. Should any person signing said bonds die or become incapacitated, or should he cease to be an officer or a commissioner, before the delivery of the bonds, such signature shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes and shall be equally effective to bind the County Commissioners of Somerset County as if delivery had been made before such death, incapacity, or expiration, or other termination of the term of office.

SECTION 6. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1980.

Approved April 8, 1980.
