

And whereupon the said Michael Earle in his petition in the Court of Chancery saith that whereas the said Edward in his life time did owe unto the said Michael Earle
 the sum of three thousand one hundred & forty two pounds of lawfull money of England in full satisfaction of a debt due unto him by the said Edward by his certain bill or writing obligatory sealed with his seal at his act & Deliberation here in Court brought whose date is of the same Day & year did send himselfe his heirs Exors to pay or cause to be paid unto the said Michael his heirs Exors & assigns
 the sum of three thousand one hundred & forty two pounds of lawfull money of England upon Demand after the date of the said bill yett not standing of the said Edward in his life time of the said sum of three thousand one hundred & forty two pounds the said Michael Earle he did not pay although often demanded neither hath the said Michael since the Death of the said Edward & to whom the same testamētary in Due form of Law hath been committed he; although the same be paid the same although thereunto required, but the same to pay he hath Denied & refused & still Doth Deny & refuse unjustly to pay the said sum of three thousand one hundred & forty two pounds & thereupon he brings this Suit

Suit

Earle in propria Persona <sup>vs</sup> ~~vs~~ <sup>vs</sup> Richard Roe

And the said <sup>George Lumley</sup> ~~George Lumley~~ (as Exor of Edward Gray) comes into Court and saith that he can not gainsay of the said Edward Gray as aforesaid as he is brought nor that the said Edward Gray was & is & stands justly indebted unto the said Michael in the sum aforesaid, as also Defendant as Exor of the said Edward and is therefore willing that judgment be given as aforesaid as aforesaid the said Debt be paying to the said Michael when he shall require the same which being by the Court heard & understood it is by them ordered this twenty fourth Day of August in the second year of her majesties Beigne annoque Domini 1592 that the said Michael Earle shall recover of the said George Lumley (as being Exor of Edward Gray as aforesaid) the sum of three thousand one hundred & forty two pounds of lawfull money of England as aforesaid; ~~as aforesaid~~ when he shall require the same and the Debt in mercerij &c;

210
 211
 212
 213
 214
 215
 216
 217
 218
 219
 220
 221
 222
 223
 224
 225
 226
 227
 228
 229
 230