

(ii) The name and location of the institution that granted a degree of doctor of osteopathy to the applicant;

(iii) The date the diploma was issued to the applicant;

(iv) Whether the license is granted or denied; and

(v) The license number, if a license is granted;

(3) Keep a record of its proceedings that relate to examinations;

(4) Adopt and use an official seal;

(5) Investigate any alleged violation of this title and, if the results of the investigation indicate that the allegation has merit, report it to the State's attorney of the county where any alleged violation occurred;

(6) Enforce the provisions of this title; and

(7) Incur any necessary expense in accordance with the State budget for the investigation and prosecution of any alleged violation of this title.]

[11-206.

The Board shall pay all funds collected under this title into the General Fund of this State.]

[Subtitle 2. Licensing]

[11-301.

Except as otherwise provided in this title, an individual shall be licensed by the Board before the individual may practice osteopathy in this State.]

[11-302.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this title, to qualify for a license, an applicant shall be an individual who meets the requirements of this section.

(b) The applicant shall be of good moral character.

(c) The applicant shall be at least 18 years old.

(d) The applicant shall have a degree of doctor of osteopathy from a college or university accredited by the American Osteopathic Association, which degree requires at least 3 years of preprofessional study and 4 years of graduate professional study.