

[8.]

Each deputy State health officer, under the direction of the Secretary of Health and Mental Hygiene and the Commissioner of Health shall have jurisdiction throughout his district; and he shall have the right of entry into any workshop, factory, dairy, creamery, slaughterhouse, or other place of business or employment, or into any private house, when in pursuit of his official duties. He shall carry out the instruction of the Secretary of Health and Mental Hygiene and/or the Commissioner of Health and shall make such investigations and reports as said Secretary of Health and Mental Hygiene and/or the Commissioner of Health may require. He shall, when required by the Secretary of Health and Mental Hygiene and/or Commissioner of Health, inspect and report upon the sanitary conditions of streams and sources of public water supply, sewerage facilities, schools and schoolhouses, dairies, creameries, slaughterhouses, workshops, and factories, and all places where offensive trades or industries are conducted in his district. He shall respond promptly when called upon for advice or assistance by any board of health or health officer within his jurisdiction, and it shall be his duty and he is hereby authorized to enforce any public health statute, or rule, or regulation of the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, or the Commissioner of Health or of any local board of health or health officer within his district, when such local board of health or health officer neglects or refuses to enforce such statute, rule or regulation, after due notice by him or by the Secretary of Health or Mental Hygiene and/or the Commissioner of Health. He shall keep himself informed as to the work of each local health officer within his district, and aid each local health officer within his district in the performance of his duties, and particularly on the appearance of any communicable disease. He shall purchase samples of food and drugs for analysis when directed to do so by the Commissioner of Health; and promote an efficient registration of births and deaths within his district, and in addition he shall have and perform such other duties as are or may be imposed upon him by the Secretary of Health or Mental Hygiene and/or the Commissioner of Health.]

[9.]

Whenever the Secretary of Health and Mental Hygiene or Commissioner of Health or deputy State health officer shall have assumed jurisdiction over any health condition in this State, the local health authorities shall assist them in the performance of their duties.]

[10.]

The Commissioner of Health, with the approval of the Secretary, shall have power to remove any deputy health officer from any sanitary district into any other sanitary
