CHAPTER 418

(House Bill 1096)

AN ACT concerning

Estates of Decedents -
Claim Against Estate Where Insurance Exists

FOR the purpose of permitting an action to be instituted against a decedent's estate after the expiration of the time fixed by statute for filing claims against the estate if the decedent was covered by a liability insurance policy which at the time the action is instituted provides insurance coverage for the occurrence; and limiting judgment to the amount of insurance actually collectible under the liability insurance policy.
